JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA B.A.LL.B. Entrance Test- 2024

Read the following passage and answer the following questions (Q.1-5):

In a vibrant metropolis characterized by towering buildings and crowded streets resonating with the cacophony of car horns and hurried footfall, legal conflicts frequently make their way into the hallowed halls of the court. Amidst the numerous legal matters that come before the case of Mr. Sharma vs the City courts, there is one case that is particularly notable Municipality.

Mr. Sharma, a small businessman, encountered a disagreement with the City Municipality on zoning rules. The City Municipality passed a by-law limiting commercial activities in specific residential districts, including the neighborhood where Mr. Sharma's business was situated. Mr. Sharma challenged the by-law in the court, asserting that it unjustly singled out his business.

Mr. Sharma's lawyer argued that the law infringed upon his constitutional freedom to engage in business and such restrictions are unreasonable and would have a detrimental impact on his means of earning a living. However, the Municipality argued that the law was essential to preserve the residential nature of the area and safeguard the inhabitants' quality of life. The court decided in favor of Mr. Sharma, declaring the by-law to be unconstitutional. The judge emphasized the importance of balancing the interests of business owners with those of residents and cautioned against overly restrictive zoning policies.
